Da Rocha has posted some of his work on his own blog over at www.brainstorm.org/darc. Da Rocha also has posted some shots of the SOTA Grads of 2010 in a slide show on YouTube. The University of Florida Libraries has posted on their website the names and addresses of all students who have participated in the program between 2008 and 2011. I was one of the lucky ones, having been accepted in September of 2010. The first graders of Florida will be visiting schools all over the state to celebrate Florida's Academic Literacy Week. The first group of 600 kids will be visiting schools during the week of November 17-23. The students will have a chance to earn a grade equivalent to what they would have earned during their full day of instruction that week. The students will receive an award when they return to their schools and will be measured on how closely they adhere to the American Academy of Pediatrics' recommended weekly reading exposure for the year. The University of South Florida (USF) has selected 10 UCF faculty members to travel to the Dominican Republic as part of an international education exchange. The Florida-based university has teamed up with USC, where education exchange programs are the norm. USF expects to cultivate another 10 to 20 exchange faculty members. The University of Central Florida has been given the endorsement of the Florida Association of Supervisors of Education and Technology (FASET). The statewide association wants the university to focus more on STEM and digital media skills. The board of FASET has recommended that the university increase engineering, science and math/technology requirements in the curriculum. They have also recommended a three-year effort to increase funds for
